FORMER BEAVERS IN THE NBA & ABA

BRENT BARRY

Barry (1992-95) was the 15th overall pick in the 1995 NBA Draft and helped lead the San Antonio Spurs to the NBA Championship in 2005 and '07. He started in the same backcourt with Gary Payton on the Seattle SuperSonics for four seasons and had his best scoring season in 2001-02 with the Sonics when he averaged 14.4 points per game. He also played for the Los Angeles Clippers, Miami Heat, Chicago Bulls and Houston Rockets. He finished his 14-year NBA career with 1,395 three-pointers made, a free throw percentage of 82.3 percent and 8,488 points. He won the NBA Slam Dunk Contest in 1996.

VIC BARTOLOME

Bartolome (1968-70) was taken in the sixth round of the 1970 NBA Draft and played one season for the Golden State Warriors where he averaged 0.9 points and 1.6 rebounds per game.

COREY BENJAMIN

Benjamin (1997-98) was selected in the first round of the 1998 NBA Draft by the Chicago Bulls and played three seasons for the Bulls and one season for the Atlanta Hawks. He averaged 7.7 points for the Bulls in 1999-00 and played 153 career games.

RAY BLUME

Blume (1978-81) was taken in the second round of the 1981 NBA Draft and played one season for the Chicago Bulls where he played in 49 games and averaged 4.6 points per game.

FREDDIE BOYD

A former Oregon State player and assistant coach, Boyd (1970-72) was the fifth overall selection in the 1972 NBA Draft and played in the NBA for six seasons with the Philadelphia 76ers and New Orleans Jazz. He played all 82 games as a rookie when he averaged a career-best 10.5 points and was selected to the NBA All-Rookie First Team. He finished his career with 2,784 points and 986 assists in 327 games.

JAY CARTY

Carty (1960-62) was selected in the sixth round of the 1962 NBA Draft and played one season for a Los Angeles Lakers team that advanced to the NBA Finals. He averaged 2.7 points and 2.1 rebounds in 28 games that season.

LESTER CONNER

Conner (1981-82) was the 14th overall selection in the 1982 NBA Draft, the year after he was selected the Pac-10 Player of the Year. He played 12 seasons with the Golden State Warriors, Houston Rockets, New Jersey Nets, Milwaukee Bucks, Los Angeles Clippers, Indiana Pacers and Los Angeles Lakers and finished his career with 4,337 points, 2669 assists and 1,085 steals in 687 games.

MEL COUNTS

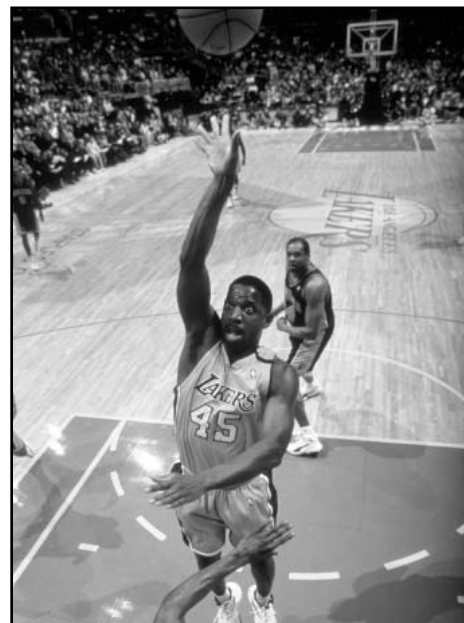

Counts (1962-64) was selected ninth overall in the 1964 NBA Draft by Boston and enjoyed a successful 12-year NBA career with the Celtics, Baltimore Bullets, Los Angeles Lakers, Phoenix Suns, Philadelphia 76ers and New Orleans Jazz. He appeared in the NBA Finals six times and won NBA titles with the Celtics in 1965 and '66. Counts played 789 games and scored 6,516 points and pulled down 4,756 rebounds in his NBA career.

GARY FREEMAN

Freeman (1968-70) was the 16th overall selection in the 1970 NBA Draft and played one season with the Milwaukee Bucks and Cleveland Cavaliers, averaging 3.2 points and 2.0 rebounds per game.

DAVE GAMBEE

Gambée (1956-58) was drafted seventh overall in the 1958 NBA Draft by the St. Louis Hawks and played 12 seasons in the NBA with the Hawks, Syracuse Nationals, Philadelphia 76ers, San Diego Rockets, Milwaukee Bucks, Detroit Pistons and San Francisco Warriors. He averaged double-figures in scoring seven seasons, including a career-high 16.7 points per game in 1961-62, and helped the 76ers win the NBA Championship in 1967.

A.C. GREEN

Known as the NBA's "Iron Man", Green (1982-85) played 1,192 consecutive NBA games, more than any player in NBA and ABA history. He played 1,278 out of 1,281 games in his career (99.8%) with the Los Angeles Lakers, Phoenix Suns, Dallas Mavericks and Miami Heat. Green was the 23rd overall selection in the 1985 NBA Draft by the Lakers and won three NBA Championships in his four trips during his time in Los Angeles. He finished his career with 12,331 points and 9,473 rebounds in 16 seasons, was named to the 1988-89 All-Defensive Second Team and played in the 1990 All-Star Game.

SWEDE HALBROOK

Halbrook (1954-55) played two seasons for the Syracuse Nationals after being drafted in the 1955 NBA Draft and scored 786 points and pulled down 949 rebounds.

SCOTT HASKIN

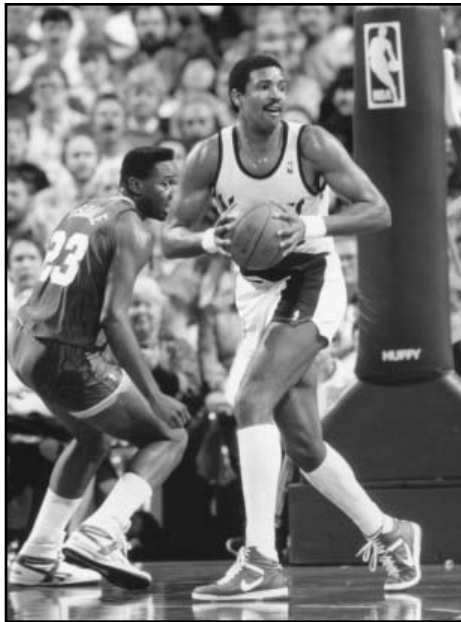

Haskin (1989-93) was the 14th overall selection in the 1993 NBA Draft and played one season with the Indiana Pacers where he scored 55 points and had 55 rebounds.

JIM JARVIS

Jarvis (1963-65) was selected in the sixth round in the 1965 NBA Draft by San Francisco and played two seasons in the ABA with the Pittsburgh Pipers, Los Angeles Stars and Minnesota Pipers.

STEVE JOHNSON

Johnson (1977-81) was the seventh overall selection in the 1981 NBA Draft by the Kansas City Kings and enjoyed 10 seasons in the NBA with the Kings, Chicago Bulls, San Antonio Spurs, Portland Trail Blazers, Minnesota Timberwolves, Seattle SuperSonics and Golden State Warriors. He played 626 career games and scored 7,345 points and had 3,450 rebounds.

JOHN MANDIC

Mandic (1940-42) was the first Oregon State player drafted when he was selected by the Washington Capitols in the 1947 Basketball Association of America (forerunner of the NBA) Draft. He played one season for the Indianapolis Jets and one season for the Capitols and Baltimore Bullets.

JOSE ORTIZ

Ortiz (1986-87) was the 15th overall selection in the 1987 NBA Draft by Utah and played two seasons with the Jazz where he played in 64 games and scored 183 points and pulled down 73 rebounds.

GARY PAYTON

One of the greatest point guards in NBA history, Payton (1987-90) is the highest Oregon State player ever drafted when he was taken second overall by Seattle in the 1990 NBA Draft. He earned the nickname "The Glove" as he was selected to the All-Defensive First Team nine times and was named Defensive Player of the Year in 1996. Payton was named to the All-NBA Team nine times, played in the NBA All-Star Game nine times and won an NBA Championship with the Miami Heat in 2006. He finished his career with 21,813 points and in the top-five in NBA history in assists (8,966) and steals (2,445) in 1,335 games. Payton was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame in 2013.

LOY PETERSEN

Petersen (1966-68) was selected in the 1967 NBA Draft by Baltimore and the 1968 NBA Draft by the Chicago Bulls where he played for two seasons and scored 199 points in 69 career games.

MARK RADFORD

Radford (1978-81) was selected in the third round of the 1981 NBA Draft by Seattle and played two seasons for the SuperSonics where he scored 347 points and dished out 161 assists in 97 career games.

RED ROCHA

Rocha (1945-47) was selected in the 1947 Basketball Association of America (forerunner of the NBA) Draft and played nine seasons with the St. Louis Hawks, Baltimore Bullets, Syracuse Nationals and Fort Wayne Pistons. He was selected to the 1951 and '52 NBA All-Star Game and won an NBA Title with the Nationals in 1955. Rocha scored 6,362 points and added 2,747 rebounds and 1,153 assists in 586 career games.

LONNIE SHELTON

Shelton (1974-75) was selected in the second round of the 1976 NBA Draft by the New York Knicks and played 10 seasons in the NBA for the Knicks, Seattle SuperSonics and Cleveland Cavaliers. He was selected to the 1982 NBA All-Star Game when he averaged a career-high 14.9 points per game and helped lead the Sonics to their only NBA Championship in franchise history in 1979. Shelton finished his career with 8,049 points and 4,136 rebounds in 673 games.

CHARLIE SITTON

Sitton (1981-84) was selected in the second round of the 1984 NBA Draft by Dallas and played one season for the Mavericks where he scored 91 points and pulled down 60 rebounds in 43 games.
